 “Blessed is the man...”

Mommy's 34th birthday, with a homemade dessert, a short supply of candles, and a great big smile.

Caleb hard at work on a “borrowed” adding machine. (Crumbs around the mouth evidence his lack of diligence with his work.)

Toting a not so enthusiastic (at the moment) sister in his arms.

A rare opportunity to ride an ATV when we were preaching in Arizona in May 2007. After riding, he didn't want to take the helmet off.

Swinging the time away.

Always ready to give a smile. Nadia completed 2nd grade homeschool this month.

One happy-go-lucky little girl. Jenny is abundant with smiles and cuddles. She is starting first grade phonics.

Nadia and Jenny praying fervently with tears and cryings to God in a recent family devotion.

Caleb's orneriness shining through. Isaac is a good big brother. He is almost done with 1st grade in homeschool.

September 2007

Dear Friends,

Summer is almost always our busiest time of year in missions work. This summer was no exception. Whether we were traversing the beautiful jungle river and trails, installing plumbing in the mission station in Panama, conducting pastoral conferences, preaching crusades, or giving it our all to touch little hearts with the Gospel in one of our children's crusades, we felt the wonderful presence of the Lord and your prayers. Thank you for making our missionary ministry possible!

Like Paul said to the Philippian church, “I thank my God upon every remembrance of you...for your fellowship in the Gospel from the first day until now.” Keep the pages turning to learn of all the exciting “adventures” we had this summer!

With love in Christ,
 Joe, Judith, Nadia, Isaac, Jennifer & Caleb
